Quality renovations have elevated this 80's style home to create a stylish retreat with immense appeal in a premier east-side Gordon setting. The tightly held home rests on an impressive north to rear 1300sqm block which is exceptionally easy care and includes a sensational backyard ideal for the kids to play. The home has been created around a tranquil central courtyard that brings a serene and restful feel to the interiors whilst a split level floorplan provides architectural interest. Its new owners can just move straight in and enjoy the quality and style of its updates. This is dress-circle living steps to Gordon East Public School, the bus, rail and village shopping, close to elite schools and in the Killara High School catchment.
